SECTION 1.

In accordance with Section 253-i, renumbered as Section 253-s, of the New York State Tax Law, Steuben County, does hereby adopt a local law imposing in such county a tax of twenty-five cents ($.25) for each $100.00 and each remaining major fraction thereof of principal debt or obligation which is or under any contingency which may be secured at the date of execution thereof, or at any time thereafter, by a mortgage on real property situated within such county and recorded on or after the date upon which such tax takes effect and a tax of twenty-five cents ($.25) on such mortgage if the principal debt or obligation which is or by any contingency which may be secured by such mortgage is less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

SECTION 2.

The taxes imposed under the authority of this local law shall be administered and collected in the same manner as the taxes imposed under subdivision 1 of Section 253 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of Section 255 of the New York State Tax Law. Except as otherwise provided in this local law, all the provisions of the New York State Tax Law relating to or applicable to the administration and collection of the taxes imposed by such subdivisions shall apply to the taxes imposed under the authority of this local law with such modifications as may be necessary to adapt such language to the tax so authorized. For purposes of this local law, any reference in the New York State Tax Law to the tax or taxes imposed by this local law shall be deemed to refer to a tax imposed pursuant to this local law, and any reference to the phrase "within this state" shall be read as "within Steuben County", unless a different meaning is clearly required.

SECTION 3.

Where the real property covered by the mortgage subject to the tax imposed pursuant to the authority of this local law is situated in this state, but within and without the county imposing such tax, the amount of such tax due and payable to such county shall be determined in a manner similar to that prescribed in the opening paragraph of section 260 of the New York State Tax Law which concerns real property situated in two or more counties. Where such property is situated both within such county and without the state, the amount due and payable to such county shall be determined in the manner prescribed in the second undesignated paragraph of such Section 260 which concerns property situated within and without the state. Where real property is situated within and without the county imposing such tax, the recording officer of the jurisdiction in which the mortgage is first recorded shall be required to collect the taxes imposed pursuant to this local law.

SECTION 4.

A tax imposed pursuant to the authority of this local law shall be in addition to the taxes imposed by Section 253 of the New York State Tax Law.

SECTION 5.

Notwithstanding any provision of the New York State Tax Law to the contrary, the balance of all moneys paid to the recording officer of the County of Steuben during each month upon account of the tax imposed pursuant to the authority of this local law, after deducting the necessary expenses of his or her office as provided in Section 262 of this article, except taxes paid upon mortgages which under the provisions of this local law or Section 260 of the New York State Tax Law are first to be apportioned by the Commissioner, shall be paid over by such officer on or before the 10th day of each succeeding month to the Treasurer of Steuben County and, after the deduction by such Treasurer of the necessary expenses of his or her office provided in Section 262 of the New York State Tax Law shall be deposited in the General Fund of the County of Steuben for expenditure on any county purpose. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sentence, the tax so imposed and paid upon mortgages covering real property situated in two or more counties, which under the provisions of this local law or Section 260 of the New York State Tax Law are first to be apportioned by the Commissioner, shall be paid over by the recording officer receiving the same as provided by the determination of the Commissioner.
